Hoist With Own Petard.

It is proper, the Governor said, that city salaries should be fixed by the local bodies representing the taxpayers who must pay those salaries. The true power of the Legislature is to confer adequate power on such local bodies he stated, adding that in this instance there is adequate authority to deal he stated adding that in this instance there is adequate authority to deal with the Mayor's salary without coming to the State capital for help.

"I concur in the Mayor's reason of the same from 7 P. M. on March 27. It is on chair and gasged him and him it. e., that the power to fix those salaries is or should be verted in the salaries is or should be verted in the Board of All and Grow, Miller.

I think the constitution might well be amended to require such bills to be submitted to the Mayor like special city bills, especially as such salaries are now made a charge upon the entire city, but, while waiting an amendment to the constitution, such salaries should be fixed, not by the Legislature, but by the Board of Aldermen up in the recommendation of the Board of Fixtimate, the same as the salaries of cit, officials are fixed.

"It would appear that actions 58 and 1583 of the charter are boad enough to confer such power, except possibly in particular cases where the peculiar wording of the statute applicable to them may prevent. In any case the remedy is to confer adequate power. There is sow a lack of uniformity and of suitable grading of salarles in the different caunties within the greater city. That defliculty should be cured by the application of general princ plea, not by legislating for particular cases.

"This subject may well be considered by the charter revision commissioners, and the charter revision commissioners, and the institution and thirteen others have been placed on probation for infractions of school regulations.
